

IN THE UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT FOR THE SOUTHERN DISTRICT OF MISSISSIPPI
SOUTHERN DIVISION

JASON SCHOOLING, et al.	§ § § § § §	PLAINTIFFS Civil No. 1:18-cv-47-HSO-RHWR DEFENDANTS
v.
HUNT SOUTHERN GROUP, LLC, et al.

ORDER GRANTING DEFENDANTS’ MOTION [261] TO EXCLUDE OPINIONS AND TESTIMONY OF DR. PAUL GOLDSTEIN, GRANTING DEFENDANTS’ MOTIONS [259] FOR SUMMARY JUDGMENT, AND DISMISSING PLAINTIFFS’ CLAIMS AGAINST DEFENDANTS

BEFORE THE COURT are Defendants Hunt Southern Group, LLC and Hunt MH Property Management, LLC’s Motion [259] for Summary Judgment; and Defendants Hunt Southern Group, LLC and Hunt MH Property Management, LLC’s Motion [261] to Exclude Opinions and Testimony of Dr. Paul Goldstein. The Motions are fully briefed. After due consideration of the record, the parties’ submissions, and relevant legal authority, the Court finds that Defendants’ Motion [261] to Exclude Opinions and Testimony of Dr. Paul Goldstein should be granted, that Defendants’ Motion [259] for Summary Judgment should be granted, and that Plaintiffs’ claims should be dismissed with prejudice.

Plaintiffs Jason Schooling, Amanda Schooling, and B.S., a minor (collectively “Plaintiffs”), allege that they were exposed to mold while living in housing at Keesler Air Force Base (“Keesler”) in Biloxi, Mississippi. Am. Compl. [172]. Plaintiffs assert claims for negligence, gross negligence, breach of contract, civil conspiracy, alter ego, fraudulent concealment, intentional endangerment, constructive eviction, violation of § 3951 of the Servicemembers Civil Relief Act, 50 U.S.C. § 3901, et seq. (“SCRA”), breach of agreement to repair, and third-party beneficiary breach of contract. Id. at 8-19.

This suit is one of fifteen similar cases filed in this Court by current or former residents at Keesler involving allegations of toxic mold and raising substantially similar, if not identical, claims.¹ This Court has already issued an Order granting summary judgment to Defendants in one case with identical claims based on substantially similar facts. See Yarbrough v. Hunt S. Grp., LLC, No. 1:18CV51-LG-RHW, 2019 WL 4345990 (S.D. Miss. Sept. 12, 2019). The Court denied the Yarbrough plaintiffs’ motion for reconsideration, Yarbrough v. Hunt S. Grp., LLC, No. 1:18CV51-LG-RHW, 2019 WL 5596419 (S.D. Miss. Oct. 30, 2019), and excluded Plaintiffs’ expert, Dr. Paul Goldstein, from offering an opinion or testifying with respect to specific causation under Federal Rule of Evidence 702, see Yarbrough v. Hunt S. Grp., LLC, No. 1:18CV51-LG-RHW, 2019 WL 4392519 (S.D. Miss. Sept. 12, 2019). The Yarbrough plaintiffs appealed the Court’s entry of summary judgment to the United States Court of Appeals for the Fifth Circuit, which affirmed “for the [same] reasons stated by the district court in its well-reasoned opinion.” Yarbrough v. Hunt S. Grp., LLC, 836 F. App’x 238, 241 (5th Cir. 2020).

Defendants have now filed the present Motion [261] to Exclude Opinions and Testimony of Dr. Paul Goldstein and Motion [259] for Summary Judgment in this action, arguing that Dr. Goldstein’s opinion and testimony on specific causation should be excluded, and that they are entitled to summary judgment on Plaintiffs’ claims, for reasons nearly identical to those in Yarbrough. See Mem. [262]; Mem. [260]. Plaintiffs have filed Responses [267][269] in Opposition to each Motion which are essentially identical to the briefs filed in Yarbrough and which make no effort to distinguish this case from Yarbrough. See Resp. [267]; Resp. [269].²

Based upon a thorough review of the record, the Court finds that the present case and Yarbrough are factually indistinguishable in all material respects. Plaintiffs have offered the same experts in this case that Yarbrough held should be prohibited from opining on specific causation. Ex. 28 [269-28] (Dr. Goldstein’s deposition testimony); Ex. 9 [268-6] (Joe Morgan’s deposition testimony). The Court finds that the same reasoning and analysis applied in Yarbrough, 2019 WL 4392519, excluding Dr. Goldstein’s opinion on specific causation, applies with equal force to his opinion in this case. The Court also finds that for the same reasons detailed in Yarbrough, 2019 WL 4345990, at *4, Plaintiffs' other expert Joe Morgan cannot offer evidence as to specific causation. The Court further finds that the reasoning offered by this Court in granting Defendants' motions for summary judgment in Yarbrough is equally applicable here. See id. at *3-9.

The Court therefore adopts and incorporates by reference all of the relevant opinions issued by this Court and the Fifth Circuit in Yarbrough as the findings of this Court and concludes that Defendants' Motion [261] to Exclude Opinions and Testimony of Dr. Paul Goldstein and Motion [259] for Summary Judgment should be granted.³

IT IS, THEREFORE, ORDERED AND ADJUDGED that, Defendants Hunt Southern Group, LLC and Hunt MH Property Management, LLC's Motion [261] to Exclude Opinions and Testimony of Dr. Paul Goldstein is GRANTED on grounds that Dr. Goldstein's opinion concerning specific causation is unreliable and should be excluded.

IT IS, FURTHER, ORDERED AND ADJUDGED that, Defendants Hunt Southern Group, LLC and Hunt MH Property Management, LLC's Motion [259] for Summary Judgment is GRANTED.

IT IS, FURTHER, ORDERED AND ADJUDGED that, Plaintiffs Jason Schooling, Amanda Schooling, and B.S.'s claims against Defendants Hunt Southern

Group, LLC and Hunt MH Property Management, LLC are DISMISSED WITH PREJUDICE. The Court will enter a separate Final Judgment in accordance with Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 58.

IT IS, FURTHER, ORDERED AND ADJUDGED that, all remaining pending motions are DENIED as moot.

SO ORDERED AND ADJUDGED, this the 30th day of March, 2022.
